

Today, we retro-publish twenty posts from the (soon to be definitely closed) Alphapsy blog, that some contributors to the ICCI blog - mostly Nicolas Baumard, Hugo Mercier, Olivier Morin and Karim N'Diaye - started some years ago. Some of these oldies but goodies include a couple of pieces on naïve physics (here and here), some thoughts on shame, a charge against neuroaesthetics, and a praise of babies. Find them all here.

So long, Alphapsy!
